

Centennial Meeting Notes
April 28, 2008

Attendees:

Kay Kammer, Ann O'Reilly, Vicki Seagul Schell, Donna Taylor, Michelle Dragoo, Amy and Gary Freedlund

Points of Discussion: We were small but mighty

- ◆ Budget: Will need committee to work together for a budget
- ◆ Discussed need to have someone take on Walking Tour brochure as Woody is moving away. Vickey thought she might know someone who would help.
- ◆ Vickey discussed events to attend to drum up support and recipes for the cookbook. Will be collecting recipes throughout Heritage
- ◆ 4th of July: Stitchery Group is making costumes for the two volunteers to walk in the parade. Kay will follow up with creator of the logo to see about getting a banner
- ◆ Quilt: Discussed having a quilt to auction – Kay will contact Allene to see if she knows someone who might help
- ◆ Tom Koenniger gave Allene a couple of shingles that he found as he helped to tear down a building – Kay to contact Susan Tissot to find out how to preserve
- ◆ Time capsule: Items to include would be coins of the year, Cookbook, Centennial book, Reflections book and promotional items of the Centennial (lapel pin, t-shirt, etc)
- ◆ Kay has emailed Woody to get photo's for display – need to choose at the next meeting
- ◆ Promotional items: Kay has costs for lapel/hat pins. Other items to include t-shirts, hats
- ◆ Heritage Day 2008 will include the antique farm equipment, rope maker, petting zoo and quilts
- ◆ Kick-off festivities to include walking tour with brochure – need assistance with this, photo display, cake walk and musical entertainment
 - Include old fashioned kid's games – Ann has a book about different games
 - Michelle to get a quote on musicians
 - Donna will take flyers for cake walk and post at elementary schools
 - Kay has costs for gunny sacks for races

After the meeting, I received a phone call from a High School Senior looking for community service hours. He is an art student and would like to work on the Walking Tour Brochure. He will complete a brochure and bring to me for review before the May 19th meeting. When I receive it, I will try to scan it in and forward it to everyone for review

NEXT MEETING – MAY 19TH 5:30 COMMUNITY CENTER

Need updates and decisions on the following:

- ◆ Outhouse competition
- ◆ Display photos
- ◆ Walking tour brochure
- ◆ Cemetery Tour
- ◆ 4th of July costumes
- ◆ Centennial book
- ◆ Cook book
