

Gary Stroutsos

Along the River: Native American Flute Music
during the Lewis and Clark Era

Saturday, March 18 7 PM
Old Liberty Theater 115 N. Main
FREE

Gary Stroutsos shares songs, stories and traditions of the Mandan, Hidatsa and Lakota peoples of the Northern Plains. Along with beautiful flute songs played on traditional American Indian flutes, his live and multi-media presentation includes historical works of art, photos and nature sounds. Gary's flute work was showcased in the Ken Burns PBS documentary "Lewis and Clark: Journey of the Corps of Discovery." He will be available after the presentation for questions and examination of the flutes.

An Inquiring Mind musical program sponsored by the Ridgefield Lewis & Clark Bicentennial Committee, The Old Liberty Theater and the Ridgefield Community Library to kick off the March 25 Heritage Celebration.

Ridgefield Heritage Celebration Saturday, March 25, 10 to 4

The Old Timers Panel Kids' craft in the Library. Antique photos, quilts, fire engines and farming equipment. Free pony rides ~ up to 80 lbs, from the Schuck Corp. Lewis & Clark activities at the Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge. Volkswalk Ridgefield Little League Opening Ceremonies

Heritage Celebration information available at www.lewisriver.com/ridgefield. All Library programs are free and open to the public. For information: call the Library (360) 887-8281. www.fvrl.org